Electors of Victoria.

FROM AND AFTER THIS DATE MEN'S and boys' straw hats will be offered at a discount of from 20 to 35 per cent. It is early in the season for such a reduction, but circumstances make the reduction imperative. In the first place, times are dull. In the second place, I have a very large stock of straw hats. The law of Demand and Supply does not seem to govern this branch of trade at all. Either there are too many straw hats, or else there are too few men and boys. Which of these theories is the correct one is immaterial. The fact remains that in the matter of straw hats I am in danger of (to use a parliamentary phrase) getting left. It is to avoid such a catastrophe, therefore, ladies and gentlemen, that I make this reduction—and make it thorough and immediate.

TO THE ELECTORS OF Victoria District.

GENTLEMEN—

I am, as already announced, a candidate to fill the important position as one of your representatives in the Provincial Legislature, and I therefore respectfully solicit your support and confidence.

In order to obtain this it is doubtless necessary to indicate my opinions on the important political issues of the day.

In this address I shall only briefly allude to some of the most important questions now before the country, leaving the more detailed discussion for the meetings about to be held in various parts of the district.

I am opposed to any further alienation of Crown lands, which has been carried on to such an alarming extent by the present government.

The Settlement and Kootenay Bills and Coal Harbor extension transaction, I condemn, as being in many respects prejudicial to the best interests of the province.

If elected I shall use every effort to secure efficiency, consistent with economy, in the expenditure of the money appropriations for the roads in this district, and honestly endeavor to have all parts of the district treated in a just and impartial manner.

The Indian affairs of the province require some attention, as they are at present in a somewhat unsatisfactory condition.

This being essentially a farming district, and as I am identified with that pursuit, to a considerable extent, therefore be assured that, if honored with your choice, I shall lose no opportunity of advancing the agricultural interests of the province in general, and of this district in particular.

And now, gentlemen, in conclusion, I wish it to be distinctly understood that although in opposition to the present government, all measures consistent with the best interests of my constituents, shall receive the hearty support of my voice and vote, emanate from which side they may.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, yours respectfully,

JOHN SLUGGETT.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

What has been called the Port Simpson "steal," although in its results not so disastrous to the country as the Island Railway "give-away," was ten-fold more iniquitous, because it involved the personal honor of the Premier. The facts were before the country, and were debated pro and con during the last session of the House. In brief they are these. There was a reserve on the public lands at Port Simpson at the time it was supposed the Canadian Pacific Railway would find the sea at that point. Mr. Smithe, Chief Commissioner of Lands, intimated privately to his political friends that the reserve would be lifted on a certain day in the near future. Port Simpson is an isolated place, and the friend thus favoured with the "pointer," by a curious combination of fortuitous circumstances, received his strictly "private and confidential" information just in time to catch the steamer for Port Simpson several days in advance of the appearance of the announcement in the B. C. Gazette cancelling the reserve, or even before the order-in-council had been passed. The "agent" made good use of his time, and gobbled up land which, at the time, there was every reason to think would become extremely valuable. The crime—which was characterized once by that public moralist, Theodore Davie, as "a gross departmental blunder"—consisted in the Premier divulging cabinet secrets and thereby violating his oath of office. This was done to benefit pecuniarily such men as R. Dunsmuir, D. W. Higgins, et al., and the facts as here outlined are on record. In the House Mr. Smithe admitted that he had told another party that the "reserve" was going to be taken off, and even had the effrontery to defend his conduct. The Industrial News concludes a moderate and well written article on the subject as follows:

This is not a question on which there can be any hair-splitting, any special pleading, any equivocation. It is simply a question of right or wrong. Did Mr. Smithe do what he is accused of having done, and has his deed received the sanction of the other members of the ministry and their supporters, or not? If he has, if they have, the electors know what duty requires them now to do. Political dishonesty and breach of trust cannot be condoned by an honest people, except by the sacrifice of its own character for honesty.

The government—not the opposition—are on trial. The electors are now asked to justify or condemn this act. If they condemn it they must vote against the government candidates.

A large number of the workingmen, it is evident, will support Messrs. Williams and Wriglesworth, who have always been recognised as friends and active promoters of their cause. The principles of the workingmen's platform are hostile to the government, and if their candidates should happen to be elected they would be bound to oppose the present administration. It is admitted that Messrs. Smith and Duval, especially the latter gentleman, have no hope of election. If they are sincere in their professions, and wish to have men in the House who will represent their views, they should retire from the field and give their support to Messrs. Williams and Wriglesworth, who can only be defeated by the split of the workingmen's ranks. That is precisely what the government party wish to see accomplished. All workingmen, who are opponents of the government, should concentrate their votes on the four opposition candidates most likely to be elected. A vote given to those who have not a shadow of a chance is simply thrown away, and might as well not be given at all. The question in the first place to be solved is: Can Messrs. Smith and Duval be elected? If after a careful estimate this is answered in the negative—as we believe it must be—the duty of the electors is plain. They will gain their point and affirm their principles by electing Messrs. Williams and Wriglesworth, who will serve them just as consistently and faithfully as either Messrs. Smith and Duval. That, in a nutshell, leaving aside all personal considerations of self-aggrandizment, is the real position of the "workingmen" in the present struggle.

Mr. J. C. Blackett, unlike Cæser's wife, is not above suspicion. The workingmen of the city are not ignorant of the fact that he was recently an employee of the government, having had his mouth temporarily closed by an inspectorship on the Point Ellice bridge. What has occurred once may occur again, especially if the mechanical power of the "wedge" is to be of any service. It is not reasonable to believe that a servant of a government can be independent in politics.

Mr. Jos. W. Carey, one of the independent candidates for this city in the Local Legislature, says that The Times' report of his utterances is correct, and that the "Colonist's" report is incorrect relative to the Clements and Dunsmuir Island railway bills. The "Colonist" asks Mr. Carey to make a statement, and if he does so he will show that the government tried to shadow and protect the Chinaman, whilst the Walkem-Beaven government were distinctly opposed to Mongolian labor.

Mr. Pooley will "get left" in Esquimalt if the Saint's plumpers can do it. D. W. H. is getting all the voters he can to promise to vote only for himself. The same dodge was worked in this city, and successfully too. It would be strange, indeed, were Mr. Higgins to poll more votes than Mr. Pooley! "Plumpers" can do it.

Pooley's Political Plank—pardon the alliteration—but it consists of this: A government advertisement for a sidewalk to be built, or not to be built, just as exigencies may require, at a cost not to exceed $500, after the election is over, "tra la tra la." Mr. Pooley must think that his constituents have no memory and do not recollect the day when Mr. Helgesen, his confrere, asked the government to lay the identical sidewalk now proposed and the government replied "No Funds."

The sundry personal losses is estimated at $50,000; the improvements in progress at $25,000. The totals foot up to over $500,000; the insurance on which was $129,000. Many are ruined, as all their means were invested either in buildings completed or in those in progress. Several have left for other scenes, having become discouraged. Others with genuine grit and enterprise began the rebuilding of the city on Monday morning, so that in a week or two we may expect to be able to record a city of considerable proportions burned and again rebuilt within thirty days. Already houses and business premises are being built by the score. The fearful event of the 13th is almost already forgotten.

It is to be feared, however, that unless great precautions are taken by the authorities a repetition of the sad catastrophe will again befall the young city. The class of buildings now being erected are not of such a nature as to withstand another visitation of the fiery fiend no more than were their predecessors. Time, however, may effect a change in this respect, as with the introduction of brick buildings the danger of a general burn up will not be so great.

GLADSTONE IN SCOTLAND

Opens the Campaign in Edinburgh—A Powerful Speech.

Only Two Policies Before the Country—Scotch Justice.

The cable telegrams state that when Mr. Gladstone began his speech in Edinburgh on Friday evening his voice at first seemed less powerful than on former occasions. The Music Hall was filled to overflowing. The Premier began by referring to the seceding Liberals, and said the question was whether the country would resolve with a strong sense of justice and sympathy for Ireland to compensate for these defections. "I am strongly convinced that the people have resolved to carry the day, notwithstanding the defection of prominent leaders of the Liberal party. This contest was fought against us by officers of our army. The Conservatives were content to leave the matter in the seceders' hands. They call themselves Unionists and us Disintegratists. They wish to retain the paper union unaltered. We seek a union of heart and mind, which we are struggling to restore. It is desirable to speedily close this great controversy for every interest in this country. The position of all parties will be deplorable, the public business will be interrupted and public confidence shaken, and social order in Ireland will not be restored unless the people speak clearly, manfully and decisively as the question merits. [Applause.] It is important that the electors should which is much disputed. It is a choice between opposite policies regarding Ireland, between opposite principles of action, and not a choice upon the details of a large and complicated bill. The question you are asked to decide is a proposition to establish a legislative body in Ireland to manage exclusively Irish affairs. It is the principle upon which you are called to vote, and not the details and particulars of the bill. The bill is dead with Parliament (cheers). The principle of the bill survives (loud cheers). I never will be guilty of dishonesty in promising to you without reflection a new plan to give effect to the principle. I will never accept a new plan unless I believe it to be better than the old one. I have been grieviously disappointed at the barrenness and sterility of mind which the critics have shown concerning our plan when they have raised objections. The last thing they have shown themselves competent to do has been to suggest an improvement. What the nation has to decide is not the clauses, details or method of the bill, but the policy and principle embodied therein. He who accepts them is he who repels them, shirks them and uses factious means to justify them, is an adversary in the fight whom we must without injury to his life, limb or reputation, endeavor to defeat. I read in London that Scotland was doubtful or adverse to home rule. I answered that I did not believe it. (Cheers.) I hoped for an opportunity to test it, and I saw enough in my progress yesterday to show me that the heart of Scotland is more deeply and profoundly touched than Scotland's will, and that Scotland was never more earnestly bent on a work of policy and justice than it is to accomplish the present enterprise. (Loud cheers.) "Regarding

THE CARNARVON-PARNELL INCIDENT,

I blame neither. It is extremely important to know what happened. Parnell said that Earl Carnarvon offered, if the Conservatives were successful in the elections, to grant a Home Rule measure and protect the industries of Ireland. Earl Carnarvon denied the accuracy of this statement, but Parnell adheres to it. I believe that both have spoken with perfect veracity, whatever may be the point of dispute between them. But Earl Carnarvon has told us what he did not say. He has not stated what he did say to Parnell. I shall believe, until he contradicts it, that he told Parnell that he favored satisfying the wants of Ireland fully with regard to local self government, and that he desired to satisfy Ireland's national aspirations.

REFERRING TO LORD HARTINGTON,

his former colleague, Gladstone said: "Lord Hartington three years ago opposed all concessions to Ireland in the matter of local government until a fundamental change and a penitential reformation in the conduct of the Irish members should have come about. The Irish have moved in the wrong direction, but Lord Hartington has moved towards them. He no longer talks gradual progress, but in his addresses certain powers not mentioned are to be delegated to certain bodies, the members of which are unknown. Chamberlain proposed a year ago the establishment of Irish Central Councils with large administrative powers. At the beginning of 1886 Chamberlain went further and advocated a large scheme of federation. He next propounded during the same session an extremely small scheme for Provincial Irish Councils cutting the national aspirations into quarters like a man used to be hanged, drawn and quartered. (Cheers and laughter.) Chamberlain flies high like a lark and low like a swallow before a shower, according to the suggestions of his teeming brain. Lord Salisbury may deny that but his own words and acts prove that he did. He vainly endeavors to escape, but he is caught in a net wherein he is inextricably foiled. His other alternatives are simply quicksands, ever slipping, ever vanishing. Don't, gentlemen, don't stand upon those quicksands, however imposingly named. There are only two policies before the country, and it remains with you to decide between them. Reflect, each one of you, in the name of Almighty God, each one in the sanctuary of his chamber, in the sanctuary of his heart, his soul, what it is in this year 1886, after nearly a century of continued coercion becoming weaker, more and more odious, and less and less effective as we go along, repudiated by a large majority of the Irish members, what it is to propose coercion as an alternative to local government." (Loud cheers.) At the end of his speech a vote of confidence in Gladstone was carried unanimously amid great enthusiasm.

SALISBURY AT LEEDS.

Leeds, June 18.—Enormous crowds awaited the arrival of Lord Salisbury and cheered him loudly. The hall was packed, there being 5000 persons present. Fully double that number of tickets had been applied for.

Salisbury began his address by stating that in most cases of an appeal to the tribunal of the people, there was a cause with an antagonist to defend it. "But now," said the speaker, "we have a very living and vigorous antagonist defending a shadowy, immaterial and unsubstantial cause. There was a bill, but it is dead and has been abandoned by its own parents, and nothing has been proposed to replace it." The speaker declared that he was always of the opinion that an Irish legislature was impracticable and that an attempt to establish one would be a disastrous one to England. The statement that the conservative cabinet had ever entertained a proposal to institute an Irish legislature was entirely without foundation. Salisbury wished to assure Parnell and Gladstone that "we were never nearer the doctrine of Irish legislation than we are to-day." Entering into an argument as to what constitutes coercion, the speaker remarked, "we may say that the criminal law is all coercion. If Gladstone is opposed to it, we must presume that he against whom efforts are being made. (Cheers). Our coercion, which he denounces, was directed against robbery, murder, mutilation, terrorism, and a system of organized intimidation which made life bitter to thousands of innocent persons. England sympathized deeply and rightly with the efforts of Greece and Italy to obtain independence, but they were large bodies of men speaking with a single voice, but in Ireland we have a quarter to a third of the whole population absolutely opposed to the residue upon this identical question. The Catholics and Protestants, both in England and abroad, work together in amity and in behalf of civilization. Depend upon it, religious bigotry has little to do with the matter. If the Protestants have shown their deep, enthralling interest in the matter, it is because they know by experience that their dearest interests are involved. They know they will have to meet a terrible enemy. They have an undying recollection of their hereditary feuds." Salisbury said that Englishmen should bear in mind the point that the measures they are invited to support have not the principle of finality, but by their nature constitute a greasy slope whereon Ireland may slide to the perfect separation which is the end the Parnellites mean to obtain.

POLICE COURT.

John Maybury, charged with being d. and d., was fined $5, or in default one week's imprisonment. The defendant admitted the charge and paid the penalty.

George Worth, alias South, arrested by Officers Sheppard and Smith, and charged with using threatening language towards his wife. The defendant's wife, being duly sworn, testified that on the 17th inst., the defendant threatened to kill her, on the corner of Johnson and Quadra streets, in this city, where she resides with her husband, who was drunk at the time, and had been drinking for some three weeks. She was up stairs when the defendant came in and witness stated that he sometimes sent the children for his liquor. He frightened them and said he had a good mind to kill witness. She could not prevent the children from getting the drink for him. They had to get it. She was afraid of him when he was in drink.

Defendant to the witness: Did you not send out the boy to get me liquor?

Witness:—No; I don't think that, you knew what you were doing.

To the Court—I have six children and the youngest is only eight years old.

Defendant, to His Honor—I deny it. I remember everything I do.

His Honor—Well, you must try to get the better of this giving away to drink. Join the blue ribbon army. Do something. You must find good surety in the sum of $100 to keep the peace against your wife and all others, or in default three months' imprisonment.

Defendant, by permission of the Court sent his wife out, and a responsible citizen became security.

EXTENDING ITS OPERATIONS.

At the Baptist Conference last Saturday the following resolution was passed relating to the basis of co-operation of that association with that of the American Baptist Home Mission Society:

Whereas, We the Puget Sound Association do realize fully the extent of the great and grand work being done by the Home Mission Society throughout this portion of its vast field of labor, and feeling the importance of a still further enlargement of the work, as it is being conducted at present through its authorized agents; and Whereas, There are a number of fields now greatly in need of missionaries which need we are anxiously hoping the society may be able to fill as far as it is possible for them to do so; therefore be it Resolved, That our Executive Committee co-operate with the superintendent of missions in supplying the field and raising funds for the carrying on of the work, and that a society for Home Missions be appointed in each church. Further Resolved, That we recommend the Rev. A. B. Banks to be our general missionary for the ensuing year.

THE CONTAGION SPREADING.

It is evident we have not yet heard the last of Secession in the maritime provinces. New Brunswick, observes the St. John Globe, is in warm sympathy with Nova Scotia. That province was dragged into the union against her will. In New Brunswick the question was submitted to her people at the polls; once they voted against it; on the second occasion largely under fear of the Fenian pressure at the border, they voted for it. But in Nova Scotia the question was never submitted to the people at the polls and the legislature that passed upon it sacrificed a province to gratify the ambitious lust of a reckless minister. We say that in this province there are many sympathizers with Nova Scotia. It was the St. John board of trade which declared "irrespective of political parties, that since the union of these provinces the just expectations of the maritime provinces have not been realized and dissatisfaction with the union has become a general sentiment among the people; who have no remedy, under, rather than against, the constitution, and whose loyalty to the crown and respect for the laws of the country is the only reason why stronger and more unmistakable action has not been taken in the union." In their effort to release themselves from a union into which they were forced, Nova Scotia will have the sympathy of New Brunswick, because the time has come when the political partnership now existing must be recast in the interest of the people, and the feeling grows apace that "loyalty to the crown," will be the best exhibited by a refusal to submit to carrying burdens greater than we are able to bear and which growing heavier day by day threaten to extinguish our best hopes and the prospect of a bright future.

THE SLOP PUDDLE.

At this particular season of the year, when a great many new houses are being built, it is specially desirable that the sanitary laws should be observed. The question of drainage should be the first consideration, for it is seldom that perfect natural drainage is found, and proper artificial drainage is quite as rare. Even where the drainage is good, the necessity of cleaning out the cellar frequently still exists. In any case the storage of any large quantities of vegetables, fruit, &c., in cellars beneath dwellings should as far as possible be avoided. For dairy and other purposes, a storeroom above ground, or perhaps extending a foot or two beneath the surface, is far superior to the damp cellar at present so common. If a deep cellar is absolutely necessary, it should be put beneath some other building than the dwelling. The destructive potency of the back door slop puddle is not so well understood as it ought to be. The humble cottage of the poor man, as well as the elegant mansion of the rich man, has its slop puddle. Few there be that have none. Necessary outhouses are perhaps placed at a distance, but the slop puddle is just at hand and ready for business. No amount of internal cleanliness can frighten that fermenting puddle. Its exhalations will float through the tidiest of rooms. Diphtheria in winter and typhoid fever in summer are the natural results. The nuisance can be abated, and some good manure be secured by conveying all the slops to a heap of sods, coal ashes, or muck which should be placed a few rods away from the house. Some carry their slops to the manure heap. To convey the slops good piping may be used, but they may be conveyed in pails at intervals during the day. This, of course, makes some trouble, but a mud puddle at the door, aside from sanitary considerations, is not a desirable neighbor. The muck or other material which receives the slops should be drawn away several times each year and used for manure. In very many cases the kitchen slops can be thrown upon the garden directly. These slops will be valuable as a manure, and can be applied when and where they are wanted. If sanitary surroundings are wanted the slop puddle must go.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

Disastrous Floods in England and Loss of Life—A Dozen Perish.

Museums, Exhibitions and Other Attractions—A Gossipy Letter.

DESTRUCTIVE FLOODS.

NOTTINGHAM, May 30, 1886.—In this country an enormous amount of damage has been caused by the storms of last week. Lines of railways have been blocked; miles of country flooded, and in many towns houses have been flooded, with disastrous effects. Unfortunately there has been a considerable loss of life as well, at least some dozen persons have perished. The Trent river here overflowed its banks and inundated hundreds of acres of land and flooded many houses; the sight viewed from the Castle was very grand and looked like a great inland sea. Fortunately the floods quickly subsided as soon as it ceased raining, and the river has assumed its normal aspect. The largest estimate of the number of sheep lost as a consequence of the recent gales and snowstorms in Westmoreland and Mid-Cumberland is 5,000. A large number of ponies also have been found dead.

THE CASTLE ART MUSEUM.

The Local Artists' Exhibition of oil paintings and water colors opened at the Castle the other day. The Promenade concerts, held three evenings a week on the lawn in the Castle enclosure, have begun, and attract a large number of visitors. In fine weather, during the summer season, when nature is robed in her choicest colors, there is always a splendid view from the Castle rock. From the terrace, near the flag staff, the Trent is seen winding like a ribbon of silver and gold round the classic grove of Clifton; yonder, looking eastward, is Belvoir Castle, and still further away in the distance recline the gently sloping hills of Leicestershire, and the glorious old forest of Charnwood; to the west lies the baronial seat of the Lord Middleton—Wollaton Hall, and from the eastern terrace the visitor looks down upon Nottingham itself. Who has never gazed on the magnificent panorama of the valley of the Trent, extending for miles, as seen from Nottingham Castle, is a stranger to some of the most delightful scenery in England.

THE EXHIBITIONS.

The exhibition fever continues. It has broken out at Folkstone, where a display of art treasures has been organized with a show of mayors, sheriffs, and persons of that sort to open with, military bands, electric light, and so on. Nottingham, not to be behind the times, has also an exhibition so called. The Gaseries, which was opened last Saturday by Mr. J. Statt, of London. The number of visitors to the Colonial and Indian exhibition for the week ending May 15th, was 117,501. Total since the opening, 245,578. I see that the recent visit of the Queen to Liverpool cost the corporation the sum of $60,000.

THE COLONIAL.

Seamen and naval architects visiting the Colonial and Indian Exhibition will have their attention instinctively directed, no doubt, to a collection of models of steamers trading to the colonies or India. One of the most beautiful of these is a full rigged model of the Royal mail steamer Moor, belonging to the Union Steamship Company. This model gained a gold medal at the Antwerp Exhibition of 1885, and proved a great attraction at the exhibition held at Port Elizabeth, Cape of Good Hope, in December last. The Moor is a vessel of 3,688 tons gross, and has very great speed, for which reason she was chartered in 1885 by the government to act as an armed cruiser for the defence of the South African coast. The Moor received an armament of six guns and a crew of 110 officers and men. She was the only merchant vessel, I believe, which actually hoisted the pennant or was commissioned under the command of a naval officer. Judging from her fine lines and her warlike construction, she would have given a good account of herself, as well as showing a clean pair of heels should she have had to do so.

At a local industrial exhibition in London the other day, there was shown an ornamental border, with an inscription in the centre, the work of one Matthew Buckinger, who was born without hands or feet, and yet could play three musical instruments, was an expert writer, designer and portrait painter; could play skittles and shave himself. Moreover, he was married four times, and was the father of 11 children. This shows what a man can do if he only tries.

THE GREAT PIANIST.

Rubinstein, who has recently left Paris, and is now giving a series of recitals in London, gave 10,000 francs to various poor artists and artistic institutions. Rubinstein is one of the most peculiar men of his day. If he were English they would say he was mad. He will never play in a concert where anyone else plays. He gives concerts entirely by himself, and never stops playing from one end of the concert to the other. He rarely bows in acknowledgment of applause. After each paid concert he gives a fac-simile one gratis for the press and his brother artists' sake. He never visits anyone, and rarely goes out of town for fear of being recognized. He walks up and down his rooms for exercise. In his own family, however, he is most affectionate, and is dearly loved. At one time he used to spend his money in gambling. Since his marriage, however, he has forsworn cards, dice, roulette, and rouge et noir. He is still generous to poor artists, but he remembers that he has a family now to care for. In appearance he resembles the portraits of Beethoven; and, in fact, his musical divinity is Beethoven. Nothing could exceed the enthusiasm with which this great pianist was received at St. James Hall, London, last week, when he gave the first of his seven historical recitals.

THE FRAGRANT WEED.

Notwithstanding the fact that many of us consume more than one solitary pipeful of tobacco every week, we find it almost too great a task to believe that tobacco circulates to the enormous extent that figures declare. The quantity of tobacco consumed in the United Kingdom is enormous. We have but to note the prodigious number of shops where it is sold to be convinced of the fact. There are, it has been calculated, over 100,000 places where tobacco can be purchased in Great Britain, in some one of its many shapes. The weight of the stuff imported in 1884 exceeded 56,000,000 lbs., the value of the quantity being nearly four millions sterling. The duty paid to government is 3s. 6d. or 3s. 10d. per pound, according to the quantity of moisture contained in the leaf. Thus "the weed," which costs on its native soil from 4d. to 1s. 6d. per lb., costs us at retail prices from 4s. 6d. to 12s. per lb. The revenue derived by government from the tax on tobacco amounts to about double the value of the article imported.

A TRYING EXPERIENCE.

The record of Elizabeth Mount, the Scotch woman who drifted away some time ago in the Columbine smack, has been beaten. A girl named Journeaux, who went out in a small sailing boat from Jersey with a young Frenchman, about a month ago, and who was left alone in the boat for a moment while her companion tried to recover a lost oar, was picked up last week quite well on the coast of Newfoundland.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

The members of the Spanish Commission lately returned from their visit to Panama say they carried away the impression that it is impossible to complete the works of the canal before 1892, and without at least a further outlay of 25 millions sterling. The death of the manager of the works, M. Boyer, they consider a great loss, the enterprise requiring a leader of great energy to check disorder and mismanagement.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The house in Dumfries in which Robert Burns died has been recently repaired. The wood work of the bedroom in which the poet breathed his last has been secured by Mr. Elliott Stock, who proposes to bind in it the facsimiles of first edition of Burns' poems which he is about to publish, making cabinets in which to issue the large paper copies of the reprint of the surplus.

There was a keen competition for some of the principal vases in Lord Dudley's collection of China, sold the other day at Whistle's. Two pairs of vases were knocked down at 2,000 guineas a pair, the total amount realised by the sale being £40,856.

At a representative meeting at the Mansion House last week, the lord mayor presiding, the proposal to hold an industrial exhibition in east London next year was unanimously approved. It was also resolved to raise a guarantee fund of £25,000.

As showing the value of land in the city of London, it is stated that the commissioners of sewers have accepted the tender of the stock exchange of £36,750 for a freehold building site in Old Broad street, having an area of 1,285 superficial feet and a frontage of 42 feet 3 inches.

Yesterday the sportsman's exhibition, which for several years was held at the Agricultural Hall, was opened at the Royal Aquarium. Most of the branches of trade connected with sport were well represented.

has arrived in London, and all speculation as to what he will or will not do has been suddenly set at rest. The moment he could reach the office of a metropolitan sporting paper, he declared his intention of meeting Hanlan, in order that the Canadian might have another endeavor to wrest the championship from Australian hands. TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE

City of Victoria

GENTLEMEN:—

The Legislative Assembly having been dissolved, I again respectfully solicit your suffrages. I consider that the record of the Smithe administration must condemn it in the eyes of all thinking men. Assuming office, as they did, when the province was in a prosperous financial condition, and when railway construction and the opening of railway communication with the Northern Pacific coast was attracting population to our shores, and when a firm defence of the rights of the province would have brought about a final and satisfactory settlement of our just claims against the Federal government—they have in the short space of three and a half years, during which they have held office, relinquished our rights; sold and given away the property of the province; illegally borrowed and squandered money; and brought the country to the verge of that disaster which prevailed when Mr. Smithe was removed from the position of Finance Minister eight years ago. The government boast that the revenue has largely increased under their management; an analysis of the figures show that the increase is due to the sale of the graving dock; the sale of lands; the tax collected from men temporarily employed upon the railway; and the forfeiture of McNamee & Co's deposit of nearly $12,000 on account of the dock contract. It is needless for me to point out that such sources of revenue cannot be relied upon in the future.

The fact was disclosed at the last sitting of parliament that the salaries of ministers, of the civil servants, of the school teachers, and the grants to charitable institutions, were paid and the general business of the country carried on only through the courtesy of the manager of the Bank of British Columbia in honoring the Finance Minister's cheque, against which there were no funds to draw, and, as you will remember, the Legislature was asked to, and did sanction the issue of $200,000 in provincial bonds to meet the overdraft.

As I deem it to be the duty of a candidate to meet the electors upon a public platform in order to explain his views, I shall take an early opportunity to do so, assuring you that if elected I shall endeavor to advance the interests of this city and of the province generally.

TO THE ELECTORS

OF

GENTLEMEN:—

Having been requested by a number of my friends to become a candidate for Victoria City at the approaching Provincial election, it affords me much pleasure to accede to their request.

In accepting the nomination I wish to state that I am in opposition to the present Government. In stating so I have to say that no matter which side a measure may emanate from, that will confer the greatest good on the largest number, will always have my support.

I shall carefully study the interests of Victoria City and those of the Province in general.

At the first public meeting called by my friends I shall there explain my views more fully to the public.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen, your obt. servant,

TO THE ELECTORS OF

GENTLEMEN:

Having been solicited in a largely signed requisition to offer myself as a candidate for Victoria City at the approaching Provincial Election I have the honor to announce my compliance with the request.

In soliciting your votes and interest I have to state that I come forward as a supporter of the present Government, being quite satisfied that their policy has been beneficial to the Province.

If returned I shall give my support to every measure, emanating from whatever source, which has for its object the promotion of the welfare of this district and the province in general.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

Victoria City District.

GENTLEMEN,—In soliciting the honor of your suffrages at the ensuing election, I do so at the request of a large number of voters.

I am in sympathy with the policy of the present Government, and so long as they continue to administer the affairs of the Province as heretofore they shall, if you do me the honor of electing me, receive my support.

At the same time, I wish it to be distinctly understood that I shall reserve to myself the privilege of studying what I may consider to be your interests before that of any party policy. At a public meeting to be held shortly I shall be happy to meet you and there express my views more fully.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

TO THE ELECTORS

OF THE ELECTORAL DISTRICT OF

VICTORIA CITY.

GENTLEMEN—

For a second time I am a Candidate for a seat in the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia.

In asking your suffrages, I can, I think, refer with confidence to my course as one of your representatives during the last four year.

It would be out of place now to enter into details respecting the votes I have given on the various measures brought before the House, beyond this, that I was actuated at all times and and upon all measures by the sincerest desire to serve the best interests of our Province according to my judgment; and should you do me the honor to return me again, the progress and welfare of British Columbia will be my first object, and shall command my best exertions.

I shall take the opportunity of addressing you in Public meetings upon political topics when I shall endeavour to fully explain my views upon the issues of the day.

REPLY.

VICTORIA, 25th May, 1886.

TO MESSRS. J. WEBB, J. PARGETER, W. AKENHEAD and others.

GENTLEMEN:—Until the receipt of your numerously signed requisition it was not my intention to become a candidate for your district, for I felt that you might consider my time was so thoroughly occupied with my own business affairs that your interests could be better entrusted to other hands than my own. I cannot, however, disregard the requisition you have so kindly sent me, recognizing therein that whatever has been lacking in my effort on your behalf you credit me in the past with good intentions, and express confidence as to my conserving your interests in the future. I cannot afford to refuse compliance with the wishes of so many who are residents of a district in which I have spent the best portion of my life and in which they and myself have a common interest. I therefor heartily thank you for the nomination and cheerfully accept it, and if elected I shall do my best to promote the well being of your constituency.

I believe that the Government which I have supported during the past four years has materially advanced the prosperity of the Province, and while their efforts are continued in the same direction, I shall, if elected, render them independent support, believing such a course will be in the best interest of the country and in accordance with the view of the great majority of the whole people.

WORK IN A STUDIO.

A PLACE WHERE THE EARLY BIRD IS LIKELY TO SECURE THE WORM.

A Fight for a Pose—Putting the Question to Vote—Rearranging the Model—The Harmless Lady Student Who Is Amply Supplied—Her Work.

A studio is a republic; but it has its recognized leaders, and there is not unfrequently one who by sheer force of will has established herself as an autocrat and takes upon herself to regulate everything, from the model to the clock. The autocrat is not always what is known as a "strong worker," i. e. one whose powers in drawing and painting might entitle her to take the lead. Her only qualifications need be self confidence, a capacity of early rising and a temper—especially a temper.

In no place more than a studio is it true that the early bird gets the worm; but in a studio that bird must be prepared to defend its spoils. Thus it is a great thing to be among the first to pose the model at 8 on Monday morning; but unless you are prepared to fight for the continuance of your pose, you will find that each comer will want to alter it to suit her particular taste. Unfortunately, malcontents have the right to put the pose to the vote; and it not unfrequently happens that after you have patiently blocked in the figure during the first hour, at 9 o'clock, when the crowd arrives, a fresh and totally different position is voted for and carried by an exasperating majority, and all your labor is lost.

THE AUTOCRAT AND THE IMBECILE.

It is at such a juncture as this that the powers of the autocrat really come into play. She makes her sketch; and, having once done so, she takes upon herself the entire arranging and correcting of the model. What does she care if he was relaxing one limb or stiffening another at the moment she drew him? She gives one searching gaze at her canvass; glances with scorn at those of her neighbors; calmly observes, "The model has moved; I will rearrange him, as I have got him all in;" and insists on her pose being maintained for the rest of the week.

In contradistinction to his type, which is always self reliant, and generally argues with the professor, is the harmless imbecile, but lady-like student. She begs every one to criticise her work, and resents nothing in the way of comment. She is amply supplied with every possible artistic necessary, from white chalk (which every one borrows to mark the position of their easels on the floor) to a large piece of fresh bread. She has more charcoal, a better "fila-plomb," and more measures and compasses than any one else in the studio. She is always amiable, and ready to give out of her abundance to her needy neighbors.

She never misses a day's work; but she can not draw, and she never expects to be able to do so. She is a striking example of our want of acquaintance with the laws which govern the selection of art students; all her tastes seem in direct opposition to the somewhat untidy casual life of a studio; but year after year you find her there, always nicely dressed, always humble, and always a trifle silly. Appealed to as to whether the model is right or no, she says piteously, "Oh, please don't ask me; I never know." She invariably makes the eyes too large, and, as a rule, prefers to draw only the head, three times larger than life, on tinted paper, in crayon, and with a good deal of stump.—Magazine of Art.

MYSTERIES OF MODERN MAGIC.

The Secret of the Marvelous "Talking Head"—The Riddle a Simple One.

In modern times magicians have made much use of mirrors. The celebrated "Sphinx" trick, or "Talking Head," which caused such a profound sensation when it was first brought out a few years ago, owed its astonishing effect entirely to the aid of mirrors. Not even the marvelous automatic chess player of Maezel is at all to be compared to the "Spinx," which may justly be regarded as the most remarkable illusion ever invented for the bewilderment of mankind. But while the possibility of hiding the person of a dwarf within the box upon which the chess player was seated might have occurred to any one as a solution of the mystery, it was difficult for the spectator to imagine how an agency other than supernatural could be connected with a head which lay in a dish on a plain four-legged table in the middle of the stage, and talked and smoked a pipe with as much sang froid as if it had belonged to a reasonable human being.

As has been said, the table was placed in the stage, in full view. The head lay in a dish on the table; it was evidently independent of human agency, for the audience could see under the table, and there was nothing there. Beneath the table were visible the curtains at the back of the stage, which was hung all around with dark cloth reaching to the floor. It is not surprising that this marvelous "talking head" should have excited the astonishment of Europe, or that it should leave puzzled the most eminent scientific men to account for the mysterious phenomenon; and, yet, as it is the case with all really effective tricks, the riddle of the sphinx was an exceedingly simple one.

A man was actually under the table, with his head through a hole in the top, but his body was concealed by mirrors so adroitly disposed that they reflected the curtains at the sides of the stage, thus producing an optical illusion by which the spectator was led to believe that he was looking under the table and seeing the hanging at the back. The deception is so perfect that it is almost impossible, even with a person who is acquainted with the nature of the illusion to realize that it is such.

An effect somewhat similar is produced by a large plain mirror inclined away from the audience at an angle of 45 degrees. In the middle of the glass is a hole through which the performer passes his head, which seems to float in the air, the body of the man being concealed behind the mirror.

Another famous trick is the "box" trick. A large box is raised from the floor in the middle of the stage, so that the spectators can see around under it. The performer gets into the box and closes it. When it is opened again he has disappeared, or a skeleton is found in its place. The man is concealed by mirrors swinging on hinges, which reflect the sides of the box, so that the audience think it is empty.—Exchange.

Col. John A. Stephens says that Alexander H. Stephens never carried a pistol but once in his life, and that was when he was a boy. Long years ago, when wagon trains were more common in Georgia, Mr. Stephens started to Augusta with some wagons. He was a small boy then and carried a pistol. When the crowd stopped to camp, "Aleck" put his pistol under his head to have it handy in case robbers should appear. The next morning his breeches were gone, and, as the youthful Stephens awoke in the dawn and missed his pantaloons, he was so disgusted with the service his pistol had failed to do that he swore he would never carry another weapon. It developed that some man in the camp had taken the breeches to tease the boy, and they were soon restored to the owner.—Chicago Tribune.

DR. VANMONCISCAR,
THE WELL-KNOWN
SPECIALIST,
Proprietor & Consulting Physician of the Only Private Dispensary on the Pacific Coast, now permanently located at 132, 134, Third Street, Portland, Or.

DR. VANMONCISCAR has made the treatment of Private Diseases of Men a special study and practice for many years. Over 4000 cases treated yearly. Recent cases of private diseases cured in a short time. Ulcers, Humors and Blotches on Face or Body cured without giving Mercury or other Poisons. Mercury is the curse of the human race. Your children will suffer from its effects. Avoid it as you would avoid any deadly Drug, and use no more. These diseases are being cured at this Dispensary without Mercury.

is a graduate of a regular Medical College, is well known over the United States and Canada by Thousands of Old and Young Men he has Cured.
and it is a well known fact that for years he has confined himself to the study and treatment of Sexual and Chronic Diseases, thus giving him advantages few possess. Dr. Vanmonciscar addresses himself particularly to those who have already tried various physicians and remedies from whom they have received no benefits, and who, in fact, have done them more harm than good. Medicine, like all other sciences, is progressive, and every year shows proof of its advances. By a combination of remedies of great curative power, Dr. Vanmonciscar has so arranged his treatment that it will afford not only immediate relief, but permanent cures.

YOUNG MEN
who are suffering from the effects of youthful indiscretions showing some of the following symptoms: Nervous and Physical Debility, Impotency (Incapacity) Lost Manhood, Abuses of the system, Exhausted Vitality, Confusion of Ideas, Dull and Loss of Brilliancy to the Eye, Aversion to Society, Despondency, Pimples on the Face, Loss of Energy, and Frequency of Urinating. You may be in the first stages, but remember you are fast approaching the last. Do not let false pride and sham modesty deter you from attending to your ailments. Many a bright and naturally gifted young man, endowed with genius, has permitted his case to run on and on, until remorse racked his intellect, and finally death claimed its victim. Remember that "Procrastination is the thief of time." So lay aside your pride, and consult one who thoroughly understands your ailment, and who will know your case, and find permanent relief for an ailment that has made day a drudgery and night hideous. Thousands, such thousands of men in good standing in the social world, of prominence in the world are to-day suffering from the fruits of their doings, the seeds of which were sown during moments to thoughtlessness. Young man turn and gaze upon thy companion, or seek the mirror for proof of your sickness. ... could he recall the arm of Fate, or had he his life to live again, then I could not appeal to you more sincerely. Let your mind wander back to the much cherished counsels of a loving father, and remember what you are to-day. Though you may for the present fill your station in society, the time is not far distant when your prominence will, like a flash, depart, leaving you a stranded wreck—desolate, forgotten and lost; so embrace the opportunity and enjoy life and happiness longer. If you claim to be a man, act your part manly. Do not console yourself with the thought that Nature will help itself, for in doing so you not only fan the flame, but wreck Nature and yourself. Remember, "Large oaks from little acorns grow;" "Little ills germinate fatal diseases."

Middle-aged Men,
married or single, who are prematurely old as a result of excesses or youthful follies, and who are troubled by too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and finding a deposit of rosy sediment in the urine, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will first be of a thin or milkish hue, and again changing to a dark or torpid appearance, causing nervous debility and loss of Vitality. Remember, this is the second stage of Seminal Weakness. In all such cases a perfect cure is guaranteed, and a radical restoration of the Genito-Urinary Organs. All interviews and letters are sacredly confidential. Medicines packed so as not to excite curiosity, and sent by express, if full description of case is given; but one personal interview in all cases preferred. Patients treated by case or monthly. Call early and avoid crowding. Office hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.; Sundays, 10 A. M. to 2 P. M.

Opposition Candidates
FOR VICTORIA CITY.

Robert Beaven,
Robert Lipsett,
Robert Taylor Williams,
Joseph Wriglesworth.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—The "longest day" in the year.

—Read Cameron's address to the electors. *

—Pendray & Co.'s Oatmeal Toilet Soap is gaining in favor every day. *

—If you want a modern building, have your plans made by Fisher the Architect.*

—There is a good run of fish in the Fraser at present. Yesterday one boat took eighty.

—Pandora Street Presbyterian Church will take up its Special Vancouver collection next Sunday. *

—Lake Ice for sale at J. Baker's, Pembroke St., above Douglas. Telephone Call No. 12. *

—Millinery, feathers and flowers at cost. Childrens mantles and jackets at cost at the CITY HOUSE. †

—The Geo. E. Starr brought freight for: A Bossi, D E Campbell, Langley & Co, R Ward, S Leiser, S L Hick.

—Hail fell to the depth of one inch at Nanaimo on Thursday. This, however, is a rare occurrence in that northern metropolis.

—Ladies' Indian gauze, summer merino and silk and wool underwear. Lightest goods manufactured for warm weather at the CITY HOUSE. †

—Miss Lola Collin, of San Francisco, a graduate of the Boston School of Elocution, will give a course of readings under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening next.

—DRESSMAKERS desirous of making up the most stylish and fashionable COSTUMES and MANTLES should inspect the new trimmings lately received by the City House.

—At New Westminster, on Friday night, four Japanese engaged in a brutal fight, in which knives were freely used, one of them was severely cut about the head and another had his ear almost cut off.

—The steamship Mexico, Capt. Huntington, arrived early this morning, having on board 808 tons of general merchandise, distributed as follows: Victoria, 353 tons; Port Townsend, 26 tons; Seattle, 309 tons, and New Tacoma, 120 tons.

—Mr. Louis A. Morgenstern, representative of the M. B. Curtis Co., was in the city today making arrangements for the appearance of his company at the Victoria on the 29th and 30th inst. "Sam'l of Posen" and "Spot Cash" will be presented.

—In order to be explicit the Standard states that in 1862, when the majority of miners in these parts were Americans, the "Mr. D. W. Higgins" of to-day was accustomed to thank God he was "not a Britisher." The public will see that St. David is too truthful a man to deny it.

—If Messrs. Dunsmuir & Co. were to pay as much per acre for the lands on the Island to be handed over to them, and expend a like sum per acre, as did Mr. Grant, the country would be many millions richer. In addition to this the inhabitants of the Comox district would have a greatly increased revenue to their credit.

—A strawberry festival will be given by the Young Men's Christian Association this (Monday) evening, in the First Presbyterian school room. An excellent programme including selections by the Queen City Band will be rendered. Doors open at 7:30, programme to commence at 8 o'clock. Admission 50 cents. Children 25 cents.

—Evidently the editor of the Colonist is a close reader of THE TIMES, for not only does he devour its news and editorials, but the advertisements are also to him a source of satisfaction (?). We would advise our would-be-censor and super-hypocritical friend to purge his own columns of the same class of "specialists," which he considers objectionable in THE TIMES. The green-eye monster, however, has more to do with our contemporary's wailings than a desire to see such advertisements out of print, which are to be found in every first class journal. Be consistent brother of the Colonist ere you find fault with your neighbors.

"A BUNCH OF KEYS."

This capital comedy will be presented at the Victoria theatre on the 24th and 25th inst., by the Sparks Comedy Company. The piece has been most successfully played in New York and the principal cities of the East for hundreds of consecutive nights. Mr. F. W. Sanger has the management in hand and Mr. Bothner is the avant courier. The hotel scene is full of mirth and practical jokes, similar in detail to "Fun on the Bristol," "Life on the Cars," and other jocularities. The "Keys" family will doubtless secure crowded houses on Thursday and Friday next.

THE REMINGTON TYPE WRITER.

Mr. Abbott, Superintendent of the C. P. R. at Vancouver, has ordered through the agents in this city, Messrs. M. W. Waitt & Co., a Remington type writer, to replace one destroyed in the recent fire. Mr. Terhune, Mr. Abbott's secretary, says that with the Remington machine he can easily do the work of three penmen. This wonderful little machine is certainly a great time-saver, and should be in the office of every business or professional man who has a large correspondence to conduct. Messrs. Waitt & Co. have always a full supply on hand.

IN DANGER IN THE STRAITS.

On Sunday morning, the 13 inst., the schooner "Fanny F. Sadler," Captain Change, San Francisco, lumber laden from Tacoma, being becalmed, was drifting dangerously toward the Rosedale Rock near Race Rock light. She drifted rapidly in the race toward the rocks and let go anchor in a dangerous position as the flood tide was setting in. Mr. Tom Argyle, jun., set out to his relief and ordered the anchor up and drifted her with the tide gradually to a safe anchorage, where she lay for some hours, when a breeze carried her beyond danger. Captain Change made the remark that nothing could have saved his vessel but for the timely rescue.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.

The public school examinations will take place this week. James Bay school will be examined to-morrow, between 10 and 12 a. m., and Johnson street ward school in the afternoon. On Wednesday and Thursday the girls and boys department of the Central School will be examined, and on Friday the High School. The public are invited.

THE CIRCULATION QUESTION.

The selection of Mayor Fell is highly satisfactory to THE TIMES to decide the circulation test of the Colonist and this journal. We have always looked upon Mayor Fell as being an honest, straightforward gentleman, and feel that in whatever position he may be placed that his acts will ever be that which is expected of an upright man. We are indeed pleased to find that the editor of the Colonist has been compelled to change his opinion of that worthy citizen, as a few months ago, through the Colonist, he attempted to blacken Mayor Fell's character in the most unwarranted manner. His worship may well accept the notice of the editor of the Colonist as being a recantation of all that he charged him with at that time. THE TIMES is pleased to note the reformation which has taken place in the editor of the Colonist, but must confess it is in a quarter least expected. As the public are somewhat interested in this matter, and no doubt would like to be informed as to the comparative circulations, affidavits have been placed in Mayor Fell's hand substantiating the assertions of THE TIMES. Let the same be done on behalf of the Colonist. Not, however, until the slippery editor of the Colonist disposes of Mr. Grant's challenge by covering his deposit of $250 with Mr. Lipsett, will we entertain any further monetary offer that may come from that quarter.

—A meeting of the Opposition Committee will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at the Committee rooms corner Yates and Langley streets.

THE GOVERNMENT'S "DENSELY" CROWDED MEETING.

For the benefit of Mr. Simeon Duck's hearers at the "densely crowded" political meeting which is to be held this evening, we make the following extracts from the Colonist as written by its responsible editor in February, 1876:—

MR. DUCK AS A SCHOOL-BOY.

"Mr. Duck's speech has evidently been "carefully 'memorized.' The sentences "were of extraordinary length, and his "manner was that of a school-boy, who "having been wound up for examination, "unreels himself in the presence of par-"ents or guardians."—Colonist Feby. 18th, 1876.

ITALIAN SUMMER NIGHT.

The German Singing Society gave their first Italian Summer Night festival at the Agricultural Grounds, Beacon Hill, on Saturday. It was a lovely night and about fifteen hundred people, including youngsters, flocked to the scene of the festivity. The Queen City Brass Band was in attendance and played a capital programme of music. The hall was artistically decorated and the light fantastic was indulged in by the pleasure-seekers for several hours. After nightfall there was a grand pyrotechnical display which lit up the surrounding foliage with charming wierdness. The balloon ascension was a success and, taken altogether, it is estimated that the proceeds will net for the Vancouver City sufferers about $2[illegible]. The reception committee were John Kurtz, Jacob Sehl, Sr., Prof. Pferdner, Dr. West, F. Krager, Frank Campbell, Jr., John Decker and C. Eppenetter. It is generally hoped the society will make their festivals regular musical attractions throughout the season.

SHORTHAND CLASS.

Mr. W. W. Escott has intimated his intention of opening a class in this city for instruction in Pitman's system of phonography, should a sufficient number of pupils be forthcoming. It is to be hoped that a sufficient number will be forthcoming desirous of taking lessons in this now almost universal system, without a knowledge of which it is difficult for any young man to secure a situation in any counting house of importance. Those wishing to join should communicate with Mr. Escott.

WAS IT POISON?

Strange reports reach this city relative to Mr. Czarske and his reputed wife, who were formerly occupants of the brick saloon and lodging now the property of Messrs. Moses and Babage, corner of View and Douglas streets. It is said that two or three weeks ago Mrs. Czarske came to a sudden death in lower California, and that her husband had been arrested for alleged poisoning. The information came via Puget Sound, and it is not unlikely that the proper officers are at present in this city hunting up information.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

We wish to call special attention to a nice assortment of millinery and straw goods now being opened which will be found of the latest styles and most fashionable colors. Also to a variety of new dress materials plushes, laces, mitts, gloves, etc. These goods comprise the latest novelties in the market, and were selected personally by Mr. E. White, and are marked at prices that will insure a speedy sale.

* BROWN & WHITE.

FIRE ALARM.

The fire alarm this afternoon was caused by a small blaze on the roof of Smith & Clarke's shop, which was put out after it had burned a small hole through the shingles before the engine got on the ground. It evidently originated from the smoke-stack.

—Wires demoralized to-day.

—Hon. Simeon Duck's jugglery, in dealing with the financial position of British Columbia, will be one of the features of to-night's pow-wow.

—Will Mr. Theo. Davie again venture into an explanation of figures, and assert his right to the appellation of being the biggest l—r in British Columbia. *

—At the meeting to-night, it is to be hoped, that the government supporters will explain what effect the disallowance of the "Land Amendment Act of 1885" will have upon government land sales at Victoria, English Bay and elsewhere, and how the government illegal acts will now be white-washed?

—In several of the churches yesterday special collections were taken up in aid of the Vancouver sufferers. The contributions from Christ Church amounted to $150, and from the Reformed Episcopal Church $123.65. From the other churches the contributions were liberal. The St. Andrew's and Caledonian societies likewise forwarded a very substantial contribution.

The Methodist Church Sabbath School Picnic on Dominion Day to Peddar Bay and return, $1. Tickets for sale at the Book Stores.

SCOTCH BAKERY.—J. Russell, SCOTCH BAKERY, Douglas street, near Johnson Victoria, B. C. All kinds of Scotch pastry; Tea bread fresh every day; hot mutton pies. *

For fancy cakes, bread, pies, and crackers of all kinds leave your order at the New England bakery, Government street. Wedding cakes made to order at short notice. Fresh oysters always on hand. Goods delivered to all parts of the city. Young Bros. *

A WORKINGMAN'S APPEAL.

FELLOW WORKMEN: Once more in the history of the Province we are requested to record our votes either in endorsation of this government's policy, or for an avowed opposition to the work of spoliation and corruption, which has obtained during the last parliamentary term. Passions and prejudices are being appealed to by unprincipled men in order to split our votes. Candidates are foisted upon us who neither represent the true interests of labor nor liberal principles. The best advocates of labor and social reform are men of the highest standard of thought; not agitators of low political character and platform notoriety. The question of the hour not only for artizans but for men of every condition who are earnest in securing political reform is, are you for or against the government. If for the government, and you endorse the reckless policy which has corrupted the country and despoiled you of your birthright, then vote for its ministers and the continuation of its policy. But if you consider it is time to correct the evil, and you esteem your honor and the welfare of the Province more than paltry considerations of place and profit, vote a straight ticket for the opposition of so overwhelming a character that it may set as a warning to all future governments who sacrifice the interests confided to their care. If, with an expenditure of four or five million dollars per annum on public works, and bonuses from the Federal government amounting to two or three hundred thousand more, the government of the Province cannot be conducted without a deficit of two or three hundred thousand dollars per annum, what will be the result of a cessation of that expenditure and withdrawal of aid from the Dominion during the next four years, when the country is placed entirely on its own resources, and dwindles down to a mere customer of eastern Canada?

The Chinese Act was passed when it was no longer needed, and only then to satisfy the demands of the trades unions of the east. Any assertions to the contrary are false, and only promulgated to mislead you and gain cheap notoriety at your expense. Opposition to the government on principle does not mean inaction or retrogression; on the contrary, it must be progressive. Honest means must be devised to stimulate trade, build up industries and create new communities, or avenues of trade, to supply the place of those wrested from the city by eastern competition. Whatever crimes have been committed by our representatives have been partially of our own creation. Schemes were prepared on the outside and made law on the inside. The interests of the country were in the hands of lawyers who acted as agents for rings, and the rest of your loyal representatives, either for want of ability, or principle, allowed them to do as they pleased, and pass acts which are a disgrace to civilized manhood; for many of the acts of last session are unparalleled in the history of any other country and a dishonor to men who boast of superior legislative freedom and equality. The granting of charters to a city having no practical existence; the protection of the medical, legal and dental professions, basing their qualifications on priority of residence, and compelling the public to support them in preference to others better qualified, was class legislation with a vengeance, and more criminal than the bogus Chinese acts which were disallowed. A venal government will corrupt any legislature; but we must also understand that a venal class of representatives are equally dangerous, for there is not the slightest doubt but that many an objectionable measure has been forced upon the government for which they stand wholly responsible.

Your duty therefore is plain. We are either satisfied with the past, and the very doubtful future, which is presented to us, or we will make a clean sweep of all uncertainties by concentrating our votes on one single ticket, either for or against the government. All are workingmen in this country except—well, I wont say, because you know and will act accordingly. One minister in a church, one lawyer in a legislative assembly, to each party, never a doctor in any house, nor a political thief in any country, should be our password throughout the province. If merchants, tradesmen and artizans would only act together they can save the country from financial collapse, and themselves from disgrace; for there is not money enough in the public purse to maintain the present army of supporters, who seek no other means of earning a livelihood. Think of the future more than of the past, except in so far as it enables you to select good and true material; and kindly accept my advice offered in the best interests of the country.

ONE OF YOURSELVES.

ELECTION OF TRUSTEES.

This morning, between the hours of 11 and noon, nominations were opened for the election of School Trustees to represent the retiring representatives of the past Board: Dennis Harris, Esq., (chairman), John Braden and H. F. Heisterman. No public interest appeared to be taken in the constitution of the new Board. In Yates Street Ward, where the nomination was received by Mr. Wm. Bone, Mr. Walter Walker was named by Mr. Thomas Shotbolt and seconded by Mr. John Stewart, of Yates street. In Johnson Street Ward Mr. H. F. Heisterman presented himself for re-election, receiving the nomination of Mr. Wm. Dalby and the seconding of Mr. Lawrence Goodacre. In James Bay Ward Dr. Milne had a natural walk over, being nominated by Alex. McLean, J. P., Fort street, and seconded by John Finlayson, Esq., grocer of James Bay Ward. So there will be no contest to-morrow, the new Board consisting of the acclammation candidates and Messrs. R. B. McMicking, D. W. Higgins, and Chas. Hayward, Hon. Secretary and Treasurer of the past Board.

PICNIC DAYS.

The pupils of St. Louis College left at half-past 8 o'clock this morning on a picnic to the refreshing verdure and the cool waters of Belmont, fringing on Esquimalt harbor. As the students came down from the head of Yates street, seated on a spacious omnibus, drawn by three leaders and two in the shafts, they waved the international flags of France, England and the United States, cheering as they went on the road of enjoyment and happy childhood days.

This evening under the auspices of the management of the Pandora First Presbyterian Church will have a picnic and the Queen City band will be in attendance under the management of Frank Campbell, jr.

DROWNED AT A FORD.

An inquest was held on Saturday at the 20 mile house on the body of Dolly Murray, born at Helena, Montana, aged about 24 years, who was drowned on the 17th, while attempting to cross on horseback at a ford over the Skagit river. She was alone at the time of the accident and unfortunately took the wrong trail and endeavored to cross where the stream is deep and rapid. The body floated some distance down the river where it was discovered by some Indians. The horse was found on the opposite side of the river and on the pommel of the saddle was found a basket containing a small pet dog. The jury returned the usual verdict.

To Unfortunate Settlers on Island Railway Lands.

Seeing that an article entitled "to settlers on Island Railway lands" has occupied a prominent position in your paper for some time past, we beg leave to reply. The Settlement Act provides that all railway lands shall be open for four years to actual settlers for agricultural purposes in sections of 160 acres at $1 per acre. This, the above Act guarantees to settlers. The declaration made by R. Dunsmuir, President of the Company, would lead any one to suppose that they have been fulfilling all the requirements of the law, and not withholding said lands from actual settlers. This is not the case. The undersigned have been on said lands for various periods—all actual settlers—and cannot get any acknowledgment of their rights by the corrupt Smythe Government, or the Government boss, R. Dunsmuir, who has threatened to spend $10,000 to drive us from the land. Things are coming to a fine pass if Crocker's gold can corrupt the Minister of the Interior, the Minister of Justice and the Smithe Government, in defiance of both the letter and spirit of the law. From his (Dunsmuir's) past actions we can only judge what to expect in the future—who has abused the power placed in him by his constituents is not worthy to be trusted a second time. Is Mr. Dunsmuir able to get this act of injustice as easily legalized as his deviations from the terms of the Island Railway contract.

TO THE ELECTORS OF VICTORIA CITY!

GENTLEMEN:—

I am again before you on the same side that I upheld about one year ago, when you gave me a most generous support.

If you confer on me the honor of electing me as one of your representatives I shall favor, to the best of my ability, a progressive and judicious policy, thereby endeavoring to avoid the business stagnation only too plainly existing at present, and shall favor the following measures:

Every possible encouragement to aid in opening up our mineral wealth and the prospecting of the country.

To make the laws in relation to members of the Legislature more stringent, so far as relates to members having any direct or indirect connection either through relations or friends, with government contracts, of any kind whatever, and by this means purify our legislative halls of every appearance of members taking advantage of their official position to further their own ends.

Laws for the protection of the tradesman and mechanic, whereby they can speedily recover small debts without appealing to the tedious process of the County Court.

I shall support all measures tending to the advancement and assistance of the toiling masses in every possible way, consistent with a just and honest course of action. Being a hard worker myself, I may possibly have a better knowledge of the wants of the workingman than those who do not labor with their hands.

Fair and square dealing with the government tenders for work, whereby all men, carpenters, bricklayers or whoever they may be, shall have their tenders honestly and fairly dealt with, giving all men in the matter of tendering for government contracts a fair and equal chance with each other.

Equalization of taxation in every possible way.

To give every reasonable encouragement towards the projected building of a line of railway to North Saanich, provided the stipulated understanding is carried out that the rates of fare and freight are to be controlled by the people through legislative action, and with a further understanding that the said railway shall at any time become the property of the people of British Columbia, whenever they wish to pay a reasonable and fair price for acquiring the ownership of the said road, with a view of operating it as a government undertaking.

The erection of a large and stately building on the present old gaol site, shall receive my best support.

That all Jurymen shall be properly paid for loss of time.

To simplify the laws in relation to voting, so that all men, especially the working classes, shall be quickly and without delay and loss of time from their labor, placed on the voters lists. By this means they will have a vote, and control such legislative action, both on the Chinese question and all other questions relating to labor, as their numbers and influence justly entitle them to.

There are many other matters of great public utility that should be speedily introduced, all of which shall receive my careful attention.

If I am favored with your suffrages I shall work for your interests without any consideration of personal gain, beyond the honor you will confer on me in electing me as your representative, with the distinct understanding that if elected I shall support the opposition to the present Government, as I consider those in power are not entitled to the confidence of the people of the province at large, and more especially those resident in the important district of Victoria City.

I am, gentlemen, yours respectfully,

R. T. WILLIAMS.
